

January 19, 1906

DEATH OF MRS. BALDRY

Last week we chronicled the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Baldry. The mother did not recover and gradually grew weaker until Friday morning when she passed away.

Funeral services were conducted at the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon, attended by a large audience of sorrowing relatives, friends, and neighbors, and the body was laid to rest in Union cemetery.

Mary E. Taylor was born at Ionia, Mich., in 1883. Came with her parents to South Dakota, and settled near Columbia in 1884. In Nov. 1904, she became the wife of J. P. Baldry, and they made their home in Groton.

The bereaved husband, the motherless boy and the other sorrowing relatives attract the sympathy of all in the great loss they have suffered.

Deceased is survived by husband and son, father and mother, two sisters and two brothers.